

Mabuasehube, Botswana

This 5-night trip is self-catered and trailer friendly. The campsites are unfenced, real-world Africa in the red sands of the Kgalagadi - lion territory where awareness is key. Your self-drive game drives can be taken at your leisure as this is a completely relaxed getaway.

What you need

- All camping equipment and shade
- Drinking and shower water
- Food and all catering equipment
- 20 litres extra fuel (we will get this in Botswana where it's cheaper!)

Route (approx. 1750km round trip, including game drives)

- Jhb to McCarthy's Rest border post 690km
- Tsabong to Mapaye Campsite 160km
- Daily game drives approx. 50km p/d

Mabuasehube (max 5 vehicles)

R5 500.00per person + R450 per trailer

Weather

October to February is usually hot and dry, which makes the water holes attractive to all forms of wildlife.

March and April are great months to visit, as the extreme summer heat has subsided and the green flush on the pans attract vast numbers of grazers, which in turn attract predators.

Campsites

MPA01/02 A-frame, shade tree (the other one fell over), toilet, (no shower) water is available, but not guaranteed.
