

Mana Pools (min 4 vehicles)

R15 500 per person, R8 000 per child < 12
(subject to exchange rate fluctuations)

Mana Pools, Zimbabwe

This is a 17 day guided, self-drive, self-catered camping adventure through Botswana on to Mana Pools in Zimbabwe.

What's included

- Guide
- Park and camping fees

What you need

- All camping equipment and shade
- Drinking and shower water
- Food and all catering equipment
- Fuel
- Border fees (US Dollar)

Mana Pools (min 4 vehicles)

R15 500 per person, R8 000 per child < 12
(subject to exchange rate fluctuations)

Route (approx. 3800km round trip)

(The following distances are approximate)

- Day 1 710km
Meet at Woodlands camp in Francistown, Botswana
- Day 2 205km
Head across the border into Zimbabwe and the Farmhouse Lodge in Bulawayo
- Days 3 and 4 425km
A long drive to the Chinhoyi Caves, and a day of exploring
- Day 5 24km
A day at Lomagundi Lakeside
- Days 6, 7, 8 and 9 170km
Depart for New BBC Camp Site where we relax and enjoy nature for a few days
- Day 10 170km
Leave for Lomagundi
- Day 11 455km
Another long drive to Chizarira Game Reserve
- Days 12 and 13 150km
Head of to Maabwe Bay for a couple of days relaxation after all that driving
- Day 14 350km
We return to Botswana and camp at Kasane
- Day 15 300km
Depart for Elephant sands
- Day 16 460km
Start the long journey home, with an overnight at Big Fig Camp
- Day 17 430km
The last leg before home

Please note that sanity prevails on all our trips, so the itinerary / route could be altered to accommodate the weather and other unforeseen factors.

Mana Pools (min 4 vehicles)

R15 500 per person, R8 000 per child < 12
(subject to exchange rate fluctuations)

Travel requirements

- Don't forget your passports
- If you are travelling with children under the age of 18, Zimbabwe now require an unabridged birth certificate and passport are required.

We will create a WhatsApp group for our fellow travelers closer to the time where we make final arrangements, discuss requirements, and answer any general questions.

